

If when you read

your eyes ache or the letters blur and run together, it is a sure sign of DEFECTIVE VISION. You should have it corrected at once. I correct all defects of vision, young or old. Eyes examined free. Glasses at reasonable prices. C. F. Hoffman, Graduate Optician, The Jeweler.

A Little of Everything.

Revival meetings are still in progress in the hall at Soldier.

At least a thousand people ran to the fire last night.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William P. Woodring, March 24, 1905, a son.

Gov. Peckypacker has designated April 14th and 25th as Arbor Days.

There were two men in the lock-up from Saturday night until yesterday.

Mrs. M. E. Henry was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg last week.

Mrs. G. T. Woodford injured herself very badly one day last week while at work in her home.

The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold an Easter Bazaar. Full particulars later.

A gymnasium has been opened in the public school building. The boys have it pretty well equipped.

Jackson street, from Seventh to Bradford street, has been closed four or five days on account of deep mud.

Postmaster E. C. Burns will be auctioneer at the venue at J. W. Dean's, in Washington township, to-morrow.

Dr. A. J. Meek is assisting Rev. Crawford in revival meetings in the Sykesville Baptist church this week.

Bon Olson, a miner of DuBois, was injured by a fall of coal in the Goss mine at Hancock yesterday morning.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church observed "Fannie Crosby Day" last Sunday. A special program was given.

Rev. Jacob Booth, of this place, has been going to Berea, Ohio, each Saturday for five or six weeks to preach at that place. He will go over next Saturday.

Wilbert Rice, of Bridgeton, N. J., and Miss Edna Earley, of Reynoldsville, were married at the M. E. parsonage at this place at 9:00 p. m. Friday, March 24, 1905, by Rev. Dr. A. Parsons.

Edward A. Carmalt, Esq., of Brookville, Republican candidate for the nomination for judge, was in Reynoldsville yesterday presenting his claims to the Republican voters of this borough.

The DuBois Journal stated this morning that the editor of the Falls Creek Herald has been sued for $50,000 damage for libelous article published against a newspaper correspondent of Falls Creek.

Prof. J. F. Conrad, of Lindsey, who is well known throughout the county as a successful instructor in the schools, was in town on Saturday looking up his friends. Mr. Conrad will be a candidate for county superintendent of schools at the coming election.

A. King Brower, of Ferrysville, an engineer on the B. & P. R. Ry., had his face terribly burned last week by the lubricator on his engine bursting and the oil igniting from a torch he had in his hand. Mr. Brower was here yesterday to see his brothers, Daniel and E. S. Brower. His entire face is bandaged.

The evangelistic services in the Presbyterian church will close on Sunday with communion when the new members will be received into the church publicly. Rev. James Conway, D. D., of Brookville, is expected to preach this evening and Thursday and Friday evenings. Rev. Scherer is still in charge of the singing and will give bible readings in the afternoon service.

George M. Gayley, of Eldred township, candidate for Republican nomination for county treasurer, was in town last week looking after his political interests. Mr. Gayley has talked several times of being a candidate, but never made an active fight to the finish. This time he proposes to be a candidate to the finish. Mr. Gayley is an excellent man, well qualified to fill the office of county treasurer, and the Republicans of Jefferson county could not do better than give him the nomination at the primary election in June. He will be a strong candidate.

J. L. Graham, of Saginaw, Mich., visited at home of his father-in-law, John H. Corbett, in this place the past week. Mr. Graham had not been in Reynoldsville for three years.

County Supt. R. B. Teitrick held examinations at Falls Creek Saturday for common school diplomas. Prof. J. R. Wilson, principal West Reynoldsville schools, assisted Prof. Teitrick with the examinations.

Harvey D. Haugh, one of the present county commissioners, who will be a candidate for the nomination for the same office at the Republican primary in June, was in Reynoldsville Monday on some county business.

Following students are home on short vacation: Clyde Murray, Misses Effie Milliren and Nulu Neale, Allegheny College, Meadville, Miss Emma Davis, State Normal, Indiana, Joseph Macro, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Harry Herpel, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Prof. McCrum, assistant principal of the Reynoldsville high schools, visited the Brookville and DuBois schools last Thursday and Misses Janet Snedden and Edna Lewis, primary teachers, visited the Puxnatusney schools on Monday of this week. Other teachers will visit other schools this week.

Revs. W. L. Barret, of Blairsville, J. F. Scherer, of Nickleville, and A. D. McKay, of this place, were present last Wednesday morning at the opening of the public schools. The Rev. Mr. Barret conducted the devotional exercises and gave an interesting address. The Rev. Mr. Scherer sang two songs.

Francis, eight-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Bohren, died at 8:30 a. m. Sunday, March 26, 1905. Pneumonia was cause of death. The baby was sick one week. Interment took place in the Catholic cemetery Tuesday forenoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brody, of Driftwood, Mrs. Wm. Brody and daughter, Irene, of DuBois, attended the funeral.

Mr. Grant Sheafnocker, of Reynoldsville, has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Jefferson county on the Republican ticket. Mr. Sheafnocker formerly resided in Brookville and is a son-in-law of the late J. R. Emery. He has many warm friends here and will be heard from during the campaign which is now waxing hot.—Brookville correspondent to Grit.

The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church next Wednesday evening, April 5th, at 8:00. At this meeting new officers will be elected and reports heard from all the organizations connected with the church. After these officers are elected and the reports from these organizations are heard the ladies of the congregation will furnish light refreshments. All the members of the church are not only invited but expected to attend.

The death of Solomon Shaffer, of Reynoldsville, has removed from the community one of its most respected citizens. Mr. Shaffer was an earnest worker in the cause of temperance and was twice a candidate for Congress on the Prohibition ticket.—DuBois Journal. The Journal was misinformed. The Solomon Shaffer referred to, formerly a citizen of Reynoldsville, now residing at Coalport, Ky., is not dead. A man named Solomon Shaffer died near Luthersburg, but it was not our former citizen.

We are authorized to place the name of Cyrus H. Blood, Esq., under the head of announcements as a candidate for Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts. It goes without saying that Mr. Blood has made a desirable officer, careful, accommodating and expeditious in the discharge of his duties. We have also seen it repeatedly stated in various papers in the county that Mr. Blood is likely to be the only candidate for that office—and everywhere one hears the remark that the possibility of there being only one candidate is as it should be. This fact in itself shows the status of Mr. Blood's standing with the voters—a distinction seldom shown any one candidate.—Puxnatusney News.

Among the candidates soliciting the endorsement of the Republican party at the June primaries is Ira J. Campbell, of this place. Mr. Campbell is seeking the nomination for the office of County Treasurer. Once before Mr. Campbell was spoken of as a candidate, but he decided not to run. However, this time he is in the campaign to stay. Mr. Campbell has filled the office of Burgess of this borough and he made a record for the office of which the taxpayers of the town feel justly proud and which is a credit to Mr. Campbell's careful, painstaking management. He is a Puxnatusney boy from his babyhood, and he has the confidence of all citizens, which confidence has grown into a favorable opinion all over the county among all who know him. His friends claim that the prospects for the nomination are bright, and none will question his ability to fill the office of County Treasurer should he be elected. Having been born and reared here, the people of Puxnatusney have had an opportunity to know Mr. Campbell well, and their endorsement of him as an industrious, honest, capable man will be unanimous at the primary on June 17th.—Puxnatusney News.

Floral Excursion.
The Pennsylvania Railroad will run a floral excursion to Pittsburg on Sunday, April 9. Rate of $1.50 for round trip. Full particulars will be published next week.

Auditors' Reports.
The auditors' reports of Reynoldsville borough and West Reynoldsville borough will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The reports will be interesting to the tax-payers in their respective districts.

Did Not Agree on Scale.
The miners and operators failed to agree on a wage scale at Altoona last week and adjourned until to-day when they will again convene, but it is not likely any action will be taken on the wage scale until to-morrow morning.

Judge Reed's Address.
In this issue of THE STAR will be found the address delivered by Judge John W. Reed before the Jefferson County Pomona Grange in Brookville the 8th of this month. Every farmer in Jefferson county should read it, and people not engaged in farming will find it very interesting.

Coming this Way.
Members of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Pittsburg will make a tour of northwestern Pennsylvania May 1st to May 5th, inclusive, 1905, by special Pullman train. They will be in Reynoldsville Thursday, May 4, one hour, from 11:00 a. m. to 12:00 m. Full particulars in a later issue of THE STAR.

Banquet Saturday Evening.
Last Saturday evening the Daughters of Rebekah gave a banquet in the banquet hall of the new I. O. O. F. block to the Odd Fellows of Reynoldsville. Seventy-five men partook of the good things. After the banquet Joseph Laverick gave a free moving picture entertainment in the I. O. O. F. lodge room.

House Burned Last Night.
About 9:30 last night a house near the Jefferson Supply Company store, owned by a Polander, was burned. The house was empty and the origin of the fire is unknown. The Polander is working at Buffalo. His wife sold the household goods and the goods were moved out yesterday. The house was insured.

Moved Into New Lodge Room.
Last Saturday the Odd Fellows moved their lodge paraphernalia from the Smith & McClure block to the new I. O. O. F. block and held their first meeting in the new lodge room Saturday night. The I. O. O. F. has erected an imposing three story brick building, which is a credit to the lodge and to the town. When the lodge room is fitted up the Odd Fellows expect to make it, there will not be a finer or more convenient lodge room in this section of the country.

Elk Officers.
Last Wednesday evening B. P. O. Elk Lodge No. 519 of Reynoldsville elected the following officers: Exalted Ruler, Dr. Harry B. King; Esteemed Leading Knight, James Delaney; Esteemed Loyal Knight, W. W. Deible; Esteemed Lecturing Knight, Charles S. Kirchartz; secretary, John A. Welsh; Treasurer, Ed. Gooder; Tyler, J. Morris Daley; Trustee 3 years, James E. Mitchell; Representative to Grand Lodge, D. R. Cochran; Alternate, James E. Mitchell.

Will be a Farmer.
P. J. Connelly, who came here one year ago last November to accept position as assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company work at this place, has resigned that position and moved to the farm of his father-in-law, near Caledonia, and will engage in tilling the soil. Mr. and Mrs. Connelly made many friends during their stay in our town.

J. B. McAtee, an agent for the Metropolitan Company, has succeeded Mr. Connelly as assistant superintendent. Mr. McAtee took charge of the work Monday morning.

Drug Store Changes Heads.
H. Alex Stoke, who has been in the drug business in Reynoldsville a quarter of a century or more, sold his drug store last week to Ex-Postmaster A. M. Woodward, of Reynoldsville, and Dr. R. M. Boyle, of DuBois. The new firm will do business under the name of The Boyle-Woodward Drug Company. Mr. Woodward, who was postmaster in Reynoldsville one term, has had a number of years' experience in the drug business and is well known to a large number of our citizens. Dr. E. M. Boyle, who conducted a drug store in Reynoldsville eighteen or twenty years ago, also has had many years' experience in the drug business. These gentlemen expect to hold the large trade built up by Mr. Stoke, and hope to increase it.

Mr. Stoke, who is one of our enterprising and progressive citizens, will take a much needed relaxation from business cares for a few months at least. It is not his intention to move away from Reynoldsville.

Dr. R. M. Boyle bought the drug store building for $10,000. The Boyle-Woodward Drug Company paid $6,750 for the stock in store.

DEATH OF MRS. C. J. KERR.
Esteemed Lady Died Saturday Morning and was Buried Monday in the Catholic Cemetery.

Mrs. C. J. Kerr died at her home on Jackson street at 1:00 a. m. Saturday, March 25, 1905, from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Kerr had been indisposed about one year, but was confined to bed only one month before she departed this life. Her maiden name was Annie E. Snyder, but had a stepfather named Mathias Hoek. She was born in Germany November 1, 1850, and was 54 years, 4 months and 24 days old at time of death. Her parents moved to Reynoldsville in 1872. November 12, 1878, she was united in marriage to Squire C. J. Kerr at Brookville and in March of 1881 Mr. and Mrs. Kerr moved to Reynoldsville. Deceased is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. J. D. Brenton, of Denniston, Ohio, Katherine and Matilda Kerr at home, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Max, of St. Marys, who was unable to attend the funeral on account of being ill herself. Mrs. Brenton was here a week before her mother died. Mrs. Kerr was a faithful and consistent member of the Catholic church. Requiem High Mass was held in the Catholic church at 9:00 a. m. Monday, Rev. Father Lynch officiating. Interment was made in Catholic cemetery.

The following out of town relatives attended the funeral: Mrs. Peter Smith and daughter, Annie, of Brookville, Frank Kerr, of Kingsville, Clarion county.

Undertaker J. H. Hughes had charge of the funeral.

Organized Drill Corps.
The members of Bethany Commandery and members of other Commanderies of Knights Templars who reside in Reynoldsville, have organized a drill corps and meet Thursday evening of each week in the banquet hall of the new I. O. O. F. building. They have secured the services of Charles Clark as drill master and are becoming proficient in the manual. They hope to make a presentable appearance in the ranks at the next annual State Conclave that meets in Williamsport, Pa., the latter part of May. Bethany Commandery has some twenty members in our town. It is the baby Commandery of the state—while the youngest—they anticipate with membership of one hundred and thirty to make a creditable showing in their handsome uniforms, gentlemanly conduct, and soldier-like appearance in the ranks at that time. The Commandery has arranged with the officials of the B. B. & P. R. R. for a Pullman train of cars which they will take possession of and use from DuBois to Williamsport and return. This train will be placed on a siding during the Conclave in the heart of the city, within two blocks of the Masonic Temple for the convenience and use of the Sir Knights and wives who anticipate being with them on this pilgrimage.

ELOQUENT, LOGICAL, POETICAL.
Hon. G. A. Gearhart Delighted His Audience With "Footprints of the Centuries."

The fifth and last number of the high school lecture course was whirled off last Thursday night by Hon. G. A. Gearhart and was the best number on the course this season. He is a fluent, eloquent, logical and poetical lecturer, and he handled his subject, "Footprints of the Centuries," in a manner that pleased and delighted his audience. His diction was fine and his logic full of force. Few men, if any, that have ever appeared before a Reynoldsville audience had a better command of the English language than Mr. Gearhart has.

Real Estate Changes.
The following deals were made in real estate during the past week:
Dr. R. M. Boyle bought H. Alex Stoke's drug store block. Consideration $10,000.
Dr. J. C. Sayers bought lot at corner of Main and Seventh streets from Charles McSherry. Consideration $1,600.
J. H. Hughes, undertaker, bought A. M. Woodward property on Main street. Consideration $3,500.
H. Eugene Phillips bought J. H. Hughes property on Grant street. Consideration $2,500.
Dame Rumor reports several other deals that have not been made yet.

Two New Rural Routes.
May let two new rural free delivery mail routes will be started from the Reynoldsville postoffice, one through Paradise and the other through Beechwoods. The carriers for these routes have not been appointed yet, but it will likely be two of the applicants examined when R. F. D. No. 1 was established at the Reynoldsville postoffice.

STAUFFER-TRUDGEN NUPTIALS.
Large Number of Guests Present—Dr. J. A. Parsons Performed the Ceremony.

At 4:30 p. m. Wednesday, March 22, 1905, Miss Mary J., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Judgen, was united in marriage to John G. Stauffer, of Eleanora, at the home of the bride's parents on Jackson street, in the presence of about ninety invited guests. James S. Pry played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. It was a ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. William Trudgen were groomsmen and bridesmaid. The bride wore crepe de chene over blue silk, trimmed in white, and wore white carnations. After congratulations a wedding supper was served. The wedding presents were beautiful and useful, consisting of a sideboard, dining room table, two stands, cut glass, silverware, table linen, bedspread, lamp, check for $25.00, and many other presents.

The out of town guests were: Charles Clark and wife, Mrs. Anna Phillips, Mrs. Jessie Gatehell, James and Rosetta Medland and Sadie English, of DuBois, and a number of friends and relatives from Rathmel.

The bride is well known in town and has a host of friends here. The groom's parents reside at Mainsburg, Tioga county, Pa., but he is employed as clerk in the company store at Eleanora. He is highly spoken of.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trudgen had two sons and one daughter and within three years they have all joined the matrimonial ranks.

Mrs. Retta Lyon Broadhead.
Mrs. Retta Lyon Broadhead, wife of Alfred I. Broadhead, passed away late Wednesday at the hospital, where she had undergone an operation undertaken in the hope of restoring her to health. Mrs. Broadhead had been in failing health for some months, but her death will be a shock to all who knew her.

She was 52 years of age and was born in Jefferson county, but resided the greater part of her life in Clarion county, where many of her relatives are located. Five years ago she came here with her husband and family, residing at No. 19, Craig street. Mrs. Broadhead was regarded by all who knew her as a kind and loving friend, and many will regret her departure from this life.

She was a member of the First Baptist church and felt fully prepared for the great transition. Her husband and three children survive her, Alma, Leona and Wade. She also leaves her mother, Mrs. Nancy Lyon, of Clarion, Pa., and one brother and five sisters.

Her husband was formerly president of the New Castle Trades and Labor Assembly, and is well known in this city. His friends will extend sincere condolences to him in his bereavement.—New Castle News.

Mrs. Broadhead was known to a number of our people, having been a resident of Reynoldsville a few years ago.

A Strong Insurance Order.
The Protected Home Circle has a record to be proud of, which has been misrepresented by some of our opponents in the old line companies in this vicinity by the report that it was going to bust, which is only in their mind. Our Order is not holding special meetings to protect their policies as an old line company of New York is to-day, neither do we pay out extravagant salaries to our officers, which the policy holder pays for in the end by high rate of insurance. The P. H. C. was organized at Sharon, Pa., August 7, 1886, with seven charter members and has to-day sixty thousand members with a reserve fund of $800,000.00, and has paid out in disability and death claims $2,800,000, and stands to-day as one of the leading fraternal insurance orders. Not one policy was ever changed to a higher rating in the nineteen years of business. What you start in at remains at that figure according to age at time of joining. All just claims are paid promptly. Both sex may become members at cost of $2.00 for initiation and medical examination. Reynoldsville has 180 members with a fine degree team. Several claims have been paid, Ralph McKee $2,000, James Shobert $1,000, John Butson $1,000, D. W. Strouse $500. Quite a sum has also been paid out to members that were in distress. Protect your home without delay with a P. H. C. policy, which will cost a small amount each month. D. W. ATWATER.

Spring Writing Papers.
Eaton-Hurbit's line of new spring book papers are being shown in the window of the Reynolds Drug Co. this week.

Sykesville.
The special meetings at the Bethel Baptist church are progressing and are well attended. Rev. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville, is assisting Rev. Crawford in the meetings and is preaching some excellent sermons. Rev. Meek has been illustrating some of his sermons with stereoscopic views, which are having a very good effect on his congregations.

Rev. D. J. Frum, who with Rev. J. A. Parsons, of Reynoldsville, is conducting revival services at Soldier, reports a very interesting meeting at that place. Already about forty persons have presented themselves at the mercy seat and quite a number have been converted. The meeting will continue during the week.

In our letter last week we stated that W. H. Reber was about to announce his candidacy for county treasurer. This was a mistake. We have since learned that we were misinformed and that Mr. Reber has no intention of becoming a candidate. We hope no offense will be taken, as we are sure none was intended.
